

Find Work at 50+ Table of Contents

List of activities

About the author

Foreword by John Lees

Chapter 1 Introduction

- The changing world of work
- Being clear on what you want
- 21st century job search
- Addressing stereotypes
- Make our age an asset

Chapter 2 Mind-set

- Dealing with disappointments
- How are you feeling about your job search?
- Positive action
- Our beliefs can affect our outcomes
- Turning things around

Chapter 3 What am I going to do?

- Being clear on your job-search goal
- Why do I want a new job?
- What could I do?
- What would I like to do?
- In what industry would I like to work?
- What are the growth areas? Labour market information
- Retraining
- Are you a credible applicant?

Chapter 4 Why should I get the job?

- Being clear on what I want
- Personality – I understand who I am
- I know what makes me uniquely valuable to potential employers
- Your value proposition

Chapter 5 Processes and systems

- Managing your time
- Systems and admin
- Your job-search plan
- Who will hold you accountable?
- Finding your next job

Chapter 6 I'm 65+

- When we feel our age
- Phased retirement
- Time for an adventure
- Cross-generational friendships
- Revisit other chapters

Chapter 7 Connecting with others

- Who we know
- The 10-second story
- Building your tribe (connections)
- When connecting can be helpful
- Practical guidance

Chapter 8 21st-century CVs

- The 9-second review
- Let's review your CV
- Different styles of CV
- The chronological CV
- The combination (skills-based) CV
- Applying online/Applicant Tracking System (ATS) software
- Finding the right key words
- The final review

Chapter 9 LinkedIn and social media

- The importance of social media
- Getting started
- Getting ready to connect
- Recommendations and endorsements
- Research and networking on LinkedIn
- Make LinkedIn part of a weekly routine
- What about other social media?

Chapter 10 Promoting yourself and being found

- Being found
- A consistent message
- More than one CV
- Talks and Presentations
- Growing your online presence

Chapter 11 Taking a direct approach

- Introducing the direct approach
- How it works
- Create your letters

Follow up with a phone call
An alternative approach – knock on doors

Chapter 12 Traditional job search

Finding job vacancies
The process
Cover letters and e-notes
Application forms
Submit applications and follow up

Chapter 13 Alternatives to a permanent full-time job

What can you offer?
Interim management/Contracting
Project working/Act like a consultant
Fees
Portfolio working
Freelance working
When you need a survival job

Chapter 14 Interviews at 50+

Typical interview questions
Questions aimed at 50+ candidates
Interview practice
Mental preparation
Preparing a 90-day plan
The day of the interview
Post-interview evaluation
If you don't get the job

Chapter 15 Staying motivated

Dealing with rejection
Confidence and self-talk
What might help
Measure your progress

Chapter 16 Staying employable

Take ownership for your development
Learning styles
Where to learn
To develop new skills to move into a new area you could ...

Appendix 1 Some employers who welcome older applicants

Appendix 2 Useful links