

Denise Taylor's Education

1988

- 2i honours degree – Psychology, Open University

1989

- Post Graduate Certificate in Counselling, Manchester University
- Diploma in Stress Management, Institute of Stress Management
- Level A testing certificate via SHL
- Licensed Level B practitioner – OPQ, SHL
- Licensed Level B practitioner - 16PF, ASE

1991

- Advanced Interviewing Skills, Manchester Business School
- Licenced KAI practitioner, Occupational Research Centre

1992

- Consulting Skills for Effective Advising, Shepherd Moscow Ltd
- Diploma in Counselling, Wolverhampton University
- MSc - Occupational Psychology, London University
- MSc Thesis: "The Managerial Plateau and its effect on Career Development"

1993

- Granted Chartered Psychologist status
- Strategic Persuasion and Influencing Skills, Huthwaite Research Group Ltd
- Interactive Skills for Quality Managers, Huthwaite Research Group Ltd
- Licenced Level B MBTI practitioner, OPP

- Licenced Firo practitioner, OPP

1994

- Assessor Training on the EFQM model, Brussels
- Managing Change, with Professor Gerard Egan, University College of Ripon & York
- Elected to Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society

1996

- Mastery University with Anthony Robbins, in Hawaii
- Licenced to present EFQM assessor training materials

1999

- MBA, Open University

2001

- Licenced practitioner to use the Morrisby profile

2002

- Diploma in Performance Management, Newcastle College
- Certified as a Highlands Ability Battery affiliate
- Commenced study with the Graduate School of Coaching

2004

- Licenced MBTI Step 2 practitioner, OPP

2006

- Licenced to use the Wave assessment materials, Saville Consulting

Plus I continue with my personal development through reading, study, training and research.

www.amazingpeople.co.uk